SPEAKERS

LIV GARFIELD, CHIEF EXECUTIVE, SEVERN TRENT

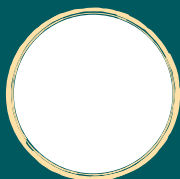

Liv is originally from Harrogate in Yorkshire, and is married, with two boys. Liv took up the reins as Chief Executive of Severn Trent, the Midlands-based water and waste company responsible for providing clean water and taking away waste water to around 8m people in the Midlands and mid- and north Wales, in 2014. In October 2020, Liv was appointed a Commander of the Order of the British Empire (CBE) in the Queen's Birthday Honours for services to the water industry.

FIONA THORNEWILL MBE

Fiona Thornewill MBE, broke the world record when she walked solo and unsupported to the South Pole in 2004, this was the first time a woman had physically surpassed a man in polar exploration. She reached the South Pole in 41 days and 8 hours beating the previous record by 3 days. Dealing with crevasses, white outs, a 30-day communication failure and a non-stop 47 mile ski to reach the Pole after her stove failed - Fiona shares how she overcame adversity, loneliness and self-doubt through sheer grit determination to reach her goal. She is also the first woman ever to walk to both the North and South Poles.

CHARLOTTE GARBUTT, AREA MANAGER, SYNGENTA

Charlotte is currently an Area Manager for global agrochemical company Syngenta working with farmers and agronomists across Lincolnshire; a role that she has done for the last 4 years after graduating from Harper Adams University and completing a sabbatical role as Student Union President. She has recently hung up her hat after a two year stint as Lincolnshire Young Farmers County Chair and is currently National Federation of Young Farmers Agri Chair. Charlotte and her partner Josh are following their ambitions of farming and have a small herd of pedigree Limousins on their smallholding in Lincolnshire which they purchased together.
