Business Support: Example

Cereal & Vegetable business

- Historically loss making in all previous 5 years when Andersons visited in 2020 (Phase 1 FFRF)
- Strong balance sheet but being eroded and debt growing
- Accounts for Sept YE 2022 show £194,000 profit
- Of, which £100k was reduction in overheads
- New renewables and property project coming on line now could add £50k return after depreciation to the bottom line (albeit a further demand on profit for capital repayment)
- All driven by change in management - the next generation; but confidence given to the older generation following review process.

8 Courses

Training / Farm Business

Farm Business
Farm Resilience Planning
This module is ideal for those looking to better understand the Future Farming Resilience Fund. Joe Scarratt from Andersons and Mark Thomas, Head of Services at FCN, cover a range of topics – from financial resilience to personal resilience and stress management, in a webinar hosted by Fraser Huggill (a farmer in North Yorkshire).

Farm Business
Business Structure
This module introduces four common types of farm business structures: (1) sole trader, (2) partnership, (3) limited liability partnership and (4) limited company. The module provides information on how each business structure operates and where associated legal liabilities and duties lie. Read more to find out whether your business structure is working for you and what alternative options are available.

Farm Business
Developing a Business Case
This module, hosted by Neil Wilson from SAB Advisory, will guide you through developing and presenting a business case to the bank. Neil shares his experience of sitting on the bank managers side of the table, and gives insight into what he looks for in a business proposition. This module also provides a useful checklist to assist with meeting preparation, as well as guidance on presenting both strengths and weaknesses of a business.
