

CLIMATE CHANGE - RISK OR OPPORTUNITY?

2 JULY 2019, LONDON

- 9am Registration, refreshments and networking
- 10am The scale of the challenge
Dr Rebecca Wheeler – Research Fellow, Centre for Rural Policy Research, University of Exeter
Andy Griffiths – Head of Value Chain Sustainability, Nestlé UK Ltd
Graham Ramsbottom – Chief Executive, Wearsheaf Group
- 11am Networking break
- 11.30am What does climate change mean for....
- Forestry – Dr Paul Thomas
  - Plants – Professor Nicola Spence – Chief Plant Health Officer, Defra
  - Habitats – Professor Nick Sotherton – Director of Research, Game & Wildlife Conservation Trust
- Q&A
- Animal Welfare – Christianne Glossop – Chief Veterinary Officer for Wales
  - Soils – Chris Collins – Professor of Environmental Chemistry, University of Reading
  - Water – Henry Cator – Chairman, Water Resources East
- Q&A
- 1pm Lunch and networking
- 2pm Keynote addresses
Lord Deben – Chairman of the Committee on Climate Change
Rt Hon Barry Gardiner MP, Shadow Minister for Energy and Climate Change
- 3pm CLA Summit Debate: What is the role of landowners in tackling climate change?
Tom Heathcote – Head of Agri-Consultancy, Knight Frank
Christianne Glossop – Chief Veterinary Officer for Wales
Archie Ruggles-Brise – Spains Hall Estate, Essex
Caterina Brandmayr – Senior Policy Analyst, Green Alliance
- 3.50pm Closing remarks with Mark Tufnell – CLA Vice President
- 4-4.30pm Afternoon tea

Follow @CLATweets and join the conversation #CLACCSummit19

Supported by:

