

Tim Breitmeyer biography

Tim Breitmeyer, Deputy President of the CLA, has been an active CLA member for more than a decade.

He chaired the CLA Cambridgeshire branch committee for two years and has also chaired the CLA's national Agriculture and Land Use Committee and Environment Committee.

Tim farms 1,600 acres in Cambridgeshire, growing wheat, spring barley, oil seed rape and sugarbeet, as well as contract-farming a further 3,900 acres.

The business also runs a substantial sugarbeet harvesting and delivery operation, rents out 5,500 square foot of office space and has a private shoot.

Tim served for 18 years in the Grenadier Guards, retiring in 1996, and is a member of Her Majesty's Honourable Corps of Gentlemen at Arms, providing a ceremonial guard for HM The Queen on state occasions.

Tim was elected Deputy President of the CLA at the Association's Annual General Meeting on 12 November 2015.
